

Conditions And Terms

Every participant who sends her details in our database confirms her readiness to take a gratuitous part in our enterprises:

- advertising actions of our competitions and our partners (excluding two of a trade of our companies and partners);
- photos on magazines and newspaper which has a story for our competition;
- interviews for magazines, newspapers, also radio and TV shows.

All girls invited on the final of the competition are required to give us official letters, with signature by their director, including declaration that the directors are ready to pay the business trip of their own employer during the preparation of the final – 3 days. The letters should be send on the organizer's address not later then 2 days after the invitation.

The participant invited on the final is required to signature agreement with “New world vision” with the next text:

1. The participant takes a gratuitous part in the competition, which will be photo and video captured, also interviews. The producer will get these photo and video materials with the face of the participant (called – Materials).
2. The participant gives all rights on this materials to the producer for publishing, using and reissue of photo portraits or images of the Participant, video materials, also materials in which could be included the face of the participant - entirely or occasional, to be constructive part or to imagined in symbol or shape together with own or fictitious name of the Participant, or reproduce in color or other way, made on any data storage object for using in the art, advertising, publishing, trade and other spheres of activity.
3. The Participant gives tights to the Organizer to be Producer and to produce the Participant, to publish photos of the participant where the participant could be imagined fully, fragmented, color or BW, with own or invention name in all media channels like magazines, newspapers, internet. The participant gives to the Organizer (Producer) all rights to use video or photo materials with the Participant's image for exhibitions, presentations and more – for advertising or other targets which are with agreement and observe the law.
4. The Organizer has all rights to use the Materials in congruence with the terms on this Covenant in media channels – radio and TV emissions.
5. Without the Organizer's (Producer's) agreement the Participant can not and has no rights to do changes in the photo and video materials with her image or to limit the rights for using materials given to the Organizer. The Participant allows adaptation of photo and video materials with her image, retouch, obfuscation, warp or changing the image, using optical illusions used in the compositions – premeditated or unintentional in the process of preparation for publishing the ready photo or video material.
6. According the conditions and terms of this Covenant the approval form Participant of the ready product (and) or advertising copy or printed issue in which is used photo and video materials with Participant's face is not needed.
7. In case of using the Materials after the end of the period of this Covenant the Organizer is obliged to pay the Participant remuneration amount to 10% of the sum from the total amount, got from the Organizer by third persons in result of using the Materials.

8. If Participant wins prize «Miss Blondie», «I Vice-Miss Blondie» or «II Vice-Miss Blonie» the Participant and the Organizer are obligated to agree with Covenant for featuring relationships with duration one year respective with the conditions of this competition.

9. The Participants are required to know and obey the conditions and terms in this Covenant.

10. The period of this covenant begins from the moment of signature to 31st December 2010.

All Participants can get 3 free invitations for their friends for support.